- Sarah Flier, ACSC, Willow River Elementary School, Hudson, Wis.
- Rosa Nava, ACSC, Heber School, Heber, Calif.
- Monica Rosales, ACSC, Los Alisos Middle School, Norwalk, Calif.
- Andrea Vasant, ACSC, March Middle School, Moreno Valley, Calif.

The ASCA-Certified School Counselor® (ACSC®) certification demonstrates school counselor knowledge in designing, implementing and assessing a school counseling program. School counselors who hold the ACSC® demonstrate their commitment to the highest levels of professionalism, ethical practice and continuing professional development in their school counseling practice.

“These school counselors are committed to staying at the top of their game. By keeping current in school counseling best practices, they ensure their students have access to the tools they need to achieve success in school and life,” said Jill Cook, CAE, ASCA executive director.

Learn how you can become an ASCA-Certified School Counselor® at schoolcounselor.org/acsc. The next application deadline is June 15, 2025.

About the American School Counselor Association

The American School Counselor Association (ASCA) is a nonprofit, 501(c)(3) professional organization based in Alexandria, Va. ASCA promotes student success by expanding the image and influence of school counseling through leadership, advocacy, collaboration and systemic change.
